

Our Code of Conduct and Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy guide how we interact with our various stakeholders.

Vodacom's Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy and code of conduct prohibit the giving of political contributions or the provision of support to an individual political party, Vodacom does however contribute towards the furtherance of democracy in some of its markets through donations made to a central democracy furtherance fund or body. Our ABC Policy and code of conduct also guide how we interact with industry bodies, business associations and civil society organisations.

Vodacom is a member of the following:

1. Business Associations

- Black Management Forum (BMF)
 - British Chamber of Business in South Africa (BCB)
 - Business Leadership South Africa (BLSA)
 - Business Unity South Africa (BUSA)
 - Global Compact Network South Africa (GCNSA)
 - National Business Institute (NBI)
 - South African Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SACCI)
 - World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF)
 - Black Business Council (BBC)
 - American Chamber of Commerce Egypt (AmCham)
 - British Egyptian Business Association (BEBA)
 - UN Global Compact
 - Federation of Congolese Enterprises (DRC Chamber of Commerce) – (FEC)
 - European Business Group Tanzania
 - CEO Roundtable of Tanzania
 - Tanzania Private Sector Foundation
- FY2025 spend: R4.1 million

2. Industry bodies:

- African Telecommunications Union (ATU)
 - Alliance for Financial Inclusion Platform Participation (AFI)
 - Association of Comms and Technology (ACT)
 - South African Communications Forum (SACF)
 - International Institute of Communications (IIC)
 - International Telecommunications Union (ITU)
 - Global System for Mobile Communications Association (GSMA)
 - Internet Service Provider Association (ISPA) - RDC
 - Eitesal
- FY2025 spend: R6.9 million

3. Support of Democracy:

- Parliamentary Monitoring Group
- FY2025 spend: R14k