8. CHARGES, BILLING AND PAYMENT

8.1. Invoices shall be delivered by email in accordance with the notice provisions set out in this agreement. No predated or post-dated invoices shall be accepted by VBAGS unless otherwise agreed in writing by VBAGS.

8.2. The prices for the Goods and/or Services shall be those as listed on the Purchase Orders. The aforesaid prices shall remain fixed. Any price increases shall require VBAGS prior written consent. Goods and/or Services ordered before an agreed price increase shall be charged at the then prevailing price prior to such increase.

8.3. Save as otherwise set out in the relevant Purchase Order, Charges for Goods and/or Services will be invoiced as set out in this Section. Invoices will be emailed to VBAGS on the central email address for all billing correspondence, which is VBABilling@vodacom.com, for receipt of invoices set out in the notice provisions of these Terms and Conditions, or such other email ID as may be notified in a particular Purchase Order for particular Goods and/or Services. VBAGS General Terms and Conditions Relating to the Supply of Goods and/or Services twenty (120) days of the end of the calendar month during which such Goods and/or Services were provided, then any amounts due in respect of such Goods and/or Services will be deemed irrecoverable.

- 8.5. VBAGS must present any disputes regarding the correctness of an invoice in writing before the Due Date or within ten (10) days of the end of the billing period in question, whichever occurs first or hereby irrevocably waives the right to challenge the Charges subsequently. VBAGS shall provide the SP with documentation that demonstrates the improper charge. The Parties shall then use their best efforts to resolve such dispute as expeditiously as possible. If such dispute, or any portion thereof, presented in writing is found to be valid, then the SP shall credit the disputed amount against the next invoice of charges, or where appropriate, it shall be refunded. VBAGS agrees that it shall not be entitled to withhold any Payment as a remedy for unsatisfactory quality or service standards.
- 8.6. All amounts due under this Agreement that are not paid when due shall accrue interest at the rate of two percent (2%) above the European LIBOR annual rate from the day following the day on which Payment was due until payment. Such interest will not be compounded.
- 8.7. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, all Charges are in US Dollars ($) and are exclusive of all applicable taxes other than taxes assessed on the income of the SP, including but not necessarily limited to value added tax, sales taxes, and duties or levies imposed by any authority, government or government agency; all of which shall be paid promptly when due by VBAGS, and who agrees to indemnify and hold the SP harmless from any liability in respect thereof.
- 8.8. If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from the Charges, VBAGS shall pay the SP such amount as will leave the SP with the same amount as it would have been entitled to receive in respect of the Charges in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding. The SP shall subsequently issue a credit to VBAGS, as compensation for the deduction or withholding made by VBAGS, to the extent that:
- 8.8.1. VBAGS has paid the Charges in full, in accordance with the provisions of this Section; and
- 8.8.2. the government which mandated the relevant withholding is the government of a country which has a bilateral tax treaty with the SP's home jurisdiction pursuant to which the SP is entitled to obtain a credit against its home jurisdiction income taxes (a "Friendly Jurisdiction"); and
- 8.8.3. VBAGS provides to the SP no later than 30 (thirty) days after the date on which the relevant deduction or withholding was made, appropriate written evidence from the taxing authorities in the Friendly Jurisdiction, to enable the SP to obtain a credit against its home jurisdiction income taxes. The credit due to VBAGS from the SP in these circumstances shall be limited to the credit, to which the SP is entitled against its home jurisdiction's income taxes pursuant to the relevant deduction or withholding.
- 8.9. Should value added tax or any analogous tax in any relevant jurisdiction ("VAT") be chargeable in respect of any amount payable in terms of this Agreement, the relevant Party shall provide the other with an invoice which meets the conditions imposed on it by the tax legislation in the relevant jurisdiction ("Tax Invoice"), which will allow the other Party to obtain relief from such tax if a relief procedure is available. Provided that the relevant Party is in receipt of such a Tax Invoice, such Party shall pay to the other the VAT properly chargeable in respect of such payment. VAT shall be charged according to the rate applicable at the time of invoice in respect of invoices issued by the SP to VBAGS. If either Party has incorrectly determined the amount of VAT chargeable to the other, then the matter shall be corrected as follows:
- 8.9.1. Where a Party has overpaid any amount, the other Party will repay such amount to it plus interest at the rate provided for in Section 8.6, as well as any related costs, and shall also provide it with a corrected Tax Invoice.
- 8.9.2. Where a Party has underpaid any amount, such Party shall pay the outstanding amount to the other upon receipt of a corrected Tax Invoice.
- 8.9.3. The payments referred to in Section 8.9.1 and 8.9.2 shall be made within thirty (30) days of it being determined that the amount of VAT was incorrectly charged.
- 8.10. Save as otherwise set out in a Purchase Order hereto, payments by VBAGS to the SP will be made from bank accounts in Europe. Each Party shall only be expected to pay the bank charges of its own bank.
- 9. TERM
- 9.1. These Terms and Conditions shall act as a framework set of terms and conditions for the Goods and/or Services described in the Purchase Orders. These Terms and Conditions may not be terminated for so long as there are Goods and/or Services being provided under

VBAGS General Terms and Conditions Relating to the Supply of Goods and/or Services

Purchase Orders, which have not been terminated.

9.2. The Goods and/or Services shall be provided for the term set out in the relevant Purchase Order; and/or until terminated in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Purchase Order; and/or of Section 10; whichever is earlier.

9.3. To the extent that there are no Goods and/or Services being provided under any Purchase Orders, these Terms and Conditions may be terminated in full by three months written notice from one Party to the other.

10. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

10.1. Subject to the provisions of Section 10.2 below or the contrary terms of a particular Purchase Order, Purchase Orders shall be subject to termination on no less than three months prior written notice from one Party to the other, such notice to expire only at the end of the Minimum Term or the then current Renewal Term.

10.2. Without prejudice to any other rights it may have, either Party may immediately terminate these Terms and Conditions or any Purchase Order upon written notice to the other Party in the event that the other Party:

10.2.1. enters into compulsory or voluntary liquidation or amalgamation (other than for the purpose of a bona fide reconstruction or amalgamation without insolvency); or

10.2.2. otherwise ceases to pay its debts as they fall due.

10.3. Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement as a result of the material breach by the other Party of such other Party's obligations under this Agreement, as more particularly set out in this Section. In circumstances where a Party (the "breaching Party") has committed a material breach of this Agreement, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to give notice in writing requiring the breaching Party to remedy such breach (to the extent that the alleged breach is capable of remedy) no later than seven (7) days after the date of deemed receipt of the relevant notice. To the extent that that the breach has not been remedied within such seven (7) day period or is a breach not capable of remedy (e.g. unauthorised disclosure by the breaching Party of Confidential Information of the non-breaching Party), the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement or, at the discretion of the non-breaching Party, the affected Purchase Order only, subject to immediate notice in writing to the breaching Party from the non-breaching Party. The non-breaching Party may also claim specific performance. The before mentioned remedies are without prejudice to the non-breaching Party's rights to claim damages and such other rights as the non-breaching Party may have at law.

10.4. Proper termination of this Agreement shall not relieve either Party with respect to any obligations outstanding to be performed at the date of termination or in respect of the obligations as to confidentiality described in this Agreement. The SP will refund to VBAGS any outstanding sums, such as advanced payments, credits or security deposits held, related to the terminated Services but not used by the date of termination of such Services. The Parties undertake to use all reasonable endeavours to settle any invoice disputes prior to such date.

11. WARRANTY AND LIABILITY

11.1. VBAGS shall not be liable to the SP for any loss, cost and/or damages including, but not limited to, direct and/or consequential loss, arising from these Terms and Conditions. This exclusion of liability shall relate to claims of breach of contract as well as for alleged negligence on the part of VBAGS.

11.2. The SP indemnifies and shall keep VBAGS indemnified against all losses, liabilities, claims, costs and expenses that may result from loss of or damage to any property, or injury to or the death of any person that may arise out of any act or omission or negligence of the SP in connection with the Purchase Order.

11.3. The SP indemnifies and shall keep VBAGS indemnified against any claims that may be made against VBAGS by any third party in connection with the Goods and/or Services, whether such claims are in respect of damage to property, consequential loss, personal injury or death.

11.4. The SP warrants that in performing the Services, it shall exercise the reasonable skill and care of a competent telecommunications services provider experienced in the provision of similar Services. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no other warranty shall be implied or given in connection with the provision of the Services.

12. CHANGE CONTROL PROCEDURE

12.1. This Agreement may only be modified if such modification is in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of each Party hereto (each an "Agreed Change"). A representative of each Party shall keep copies of all Agreed Changes. This process, in respect of which more detail is set out below, shall be known as the "Change Control Procedure".

VBAGS General Terms and Conditions Relating to the Supply of Goods and/or Services

12.2. No Change shall be of any effect unless and until it has become an Agreed Change in accordance with Section 12.1 above.

12.3. Pending written agreement between the Parties in respect of any variation or alteration of this Agreement or any Service, the SP shall continue to provide the Services in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement in its original form.

13. HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Parties acknowledge that health and safety is of paramount importance within their respective organisations. To the extent that the SP will perform Services for VBAGS at a VBAGS Customer Site, whether through itself or its subcontractors or other agents, including but not limited to installation services, VBAGS will contractually ensure that its Customers supply a copy of the Customer's rules regarding health and safety and any relevant national legislation relevant to the provision of the relevant Services no less than two (2) weeks prior to the provision of the relevant Services (the "Local Health and Safety Rules"). The SP agrees to construct a safe method of working in connection with the provision of the Services, which is compliant with the Local Health and Safety Rules and made known to the SP from time to time by VBAGS' Customers.

14.1. The Supplier shall become fully acquainted and comply with VBAGS's Code of Ethical Purchasing which terms and conditions are available on 14.3. In case the Supplier prefers to have a physical copy of the Code of Ethical Purchasing, the Client undertakes to provide same upon request.

15. ASSIGNMENT / NOVATION / SUBCONTRACTING

The SP shall not without prior written consent of VBAGS sell, assign, novate, transfer or dispose of any or all of its rights or obligations hereunder. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. VBAGS may however assign this Agreement to its affiliate by notifying the SP.

15.1. In the event that VBAGS has consented in writing to the placing of subcontracts by the SP, a copy of each sub-contract shall be sent by the SP to VBAGS immediately upon signing and prior to the delivery of any goods and/or services by the sub-contractor. In the case of sub-contracting, the SP shall at all times be and remain principal and shall be and remain fully responsible and liable for all its obligations arising from these Terms and Conditions and VBAGS' Purchase Orders.

16. FORCE MAJEURE

No failure or omission by either Party to carry out or observe any terms and conditions of this Agreement, except for any obligations to make Payment, shall give rise to any claim against the Party in question or be deemed a breach of this Agreement if such failure or omission arises from a cause of force majeure, an act of Government or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of that Party. If such delay or failure continues for at least ninety (90) days, either Party will be entitled to terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to the other Party

17. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY

17.1. Each Party agrees that the existence and terms of this Agreement are confidential and that all information and data, of any nature, provided by one Party to another hereunder shall remain the property of the disclosing Party and be treated as fully confidential by the receiving Party and shall be used solely for the purpose for which it is supplied unless the disclosing Party has identified the data as being non-confidential ("Confidential Information").

17.2. Save as otherwise expressly permitted by this Section 17, neither Party shall divulge Confidential Information other than to those employees (including employees of SPs) and professional advisors, who have a need to know the relevant information, and shall ensure that such persons are aware of and comply with these obligations as to confidentiality. Each Party shall be responsible vis-à-vis the other Party for any subsequent disclosure made by an employee, SP company or professional advisor, which would have been unauthorised under the terms of this Agreement had it been made directly by such Party.

17.3. The provisions of Sections 17.1 and 17.2 shall not apply to any information to the extent that it is (a) trivial or obvious; (b) already in the other Party's possession other than as a result of Section 17.1 and/or 17.2; (c) independently developed by the receiving Party prior to the execution of this Agreement; (d) in the public domain through no fault of the receiving Party; or (e) disclosed by the receiving Party pursuant to judicial or governmental request, requirement or order, where lawfully required by such

19. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

19.1. Each Party agrees not to display or use any of the other Party's trade names, service marks, brands or trademarks, and shall not permit the same to be used or displayed by any third party, without the prior written consent of that other Party.

19.2. It is expressly understood by each Party that the trade names, service marks, brands, trademarks of the other Party, together with all and any intellectual property rights pertaining to that Party's business, are proprietary to that Party and nothing in this Agreement constitutes the grant of a general licence to use the said trade names, service marks, brands trademarks or other intellectual property rights.

19.3. The SP indemnifies and shall keep VBAGS indemnified against any claim for infringement of intellectual property rights in connection with any goods and/or services supplied by the SP to VBAGS and against any and all costs, expenses and damages which VBAGS may incur or become liable for as a result of such infringement.

19.4. VBAGS shall give to the SP prompt notice in writing of any claim being made or action threatened or brought against VBAGS and will permit the SP, at the SP's own expense, to conduct any litigation that may ensue and all negotiations for a settlement of the claim.

20. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

20.1. In the event of a dispute arising between the Parties, the Parties agree that they will attempt in good faith to resolve any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement promptly by negotiations between management representatives of the Parties with authority to settle the dispute.

20.2. If the Parties are unable to resolve the deadlock or dispute informally between themselves, then prior to submitting any remaining dispute to arbitration, the Parties will try to resolve the remaining dispute with the support of an independent mediator accredited by the UK Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution ("CEDR"), using CEDR's Model Mediation Procedure. The costs of such mediation shall be borne equally by the Parties. Any resolution of the dispute achieved through such mediation must be set out in a document signed by both Parties if it is to be binding. Such document may then be filed as a consent order with a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

VBAGS General Terms and Conditions Relating to the Supply of Goods and/or Services

20.3. In the event that mediation does not result in a mutually acceptable resolution to the dispute within sixty (60) calendar days after the start of negotiations (or such longer period as the Parties may agree), or if delaying the onset of substantive legal proceedings might prejudice the rights of either Party, either Party shall be entitled either to submit such residual dispute for final settlement to the courts of England and Wales or under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce ("ICC") by one or more arbitrators appointed in accordance with the said rules. The other Party shall not contest the election of the English courts and/or arbitration on grounds of inconvenient forum or at all. Where one Party has elected to resolve a dispute using arbitration rather than the courts of England and Wales, either Party shall have recourse to and both Parties agree to be bound by the pre-arbitral referee procedure of the ICC in accordance with its Rules for a Pre-Arbitral Referee Procedure. Any procedure followed pursuant to the operation of this Section will be held at a neutral site in London, England, and conducted in the English language. The arbitrator will determine issues of arbitrability, including the applicability of any statute of limitation, but may not limit, expand or otherwise modify the terms of the Agreement. The arbitrator's decision and award will be in writing, setting forth the legal and factual basis. The arbitrator may in appropriate circumstances provide for injunctive relief (including interim relief). An arbitration decision and award will only be subject to review because of errors of law. The arbitrator shall be entitled to make an award of costs to the prevailing Party. The Parties, other participants and the arbitrator will hold the existence, content and result of arbitration in confidence, except to the extent necessary to enforce a final settlement agreement or to obtain and enforce a judgment on an arbitration award. The language to be used in the arbitration procedure shall be English.

21. MISCELLANEOUS

Any Article, Section, Paragraph or any other provision of this Agreement which is, or becomes, illegal, invalid or unenforceable shall be severed herefrom and shall be ineffective to the extent of such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability and shall not affect or impair the remaining provisions hereof, which provisions shall be severed from any illegal, invalid or unenforceable section or other provision of this Agreement and otherwise remain in full force and effect. No waiver by either Party to any provisions of this Agreement shall be binding unless made expressly and confirmed in writing. Any such waiver shall relate only to such matter, non-compliance or breach as it relates to and shall not apply to any subsequent or other matter, non-compliance or breach.
- 21.2. These Terms and Conditions and the Purchase Orders represent the entire understanding between the Parties in relation to the matters dealt with herein and supersedes all previous covenants and representations made by either Party, whether oral or written.
